Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., September 2, 1,8989 .

The Superintendent, U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

You are hereby instructed to coin during the current month 1,300,000 silver dollars, under the act of July 14, 1890 and such additional silver dollars, from silver purchased under the act of February 28, 1878, as your present machinery and force will permit, working the force regular hours.

In addition to the coinage of silver dollars you are hereby instructed to coin $150,000 in dimes, from "trade dollar" bullion in your possession.

Of the coinage of dimes, herein authorized, the Department desires that at least $100,000 shall be ready for distribution by the 10th instant.

You will please inform me when the Department can begin to draw transfer orders against these dimes.

Very respectfully,

Director.

[NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 165]

Treasury Department, Bureau of the Mint, Washington, D.C., September 2, 1890.

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint, Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

You are hereby instructed to coin during the current month 1,300,000 silver dollars, under the act of July 14, 1890 and such additional silver dollars, from silver purchased under the act of February 28, 1878, as your present machinery and force will permit, working the force regular hours.

In addition to the coinage of silver dollars you are hereby instructed to coin $150,000 in dimes, from "trade dollar" bullion in your possession.

Of the coinage of dimes, herein authorized, the Department desires that at least $100,000 shall be ready for distribution by the 10^{h} instant.

You will please inform me when the Department can begin to draw transfer orders against these dimes.

Very respectfully, E.O. Leech Director.